zoom

TCBA held a Hybrid Convention in 2023 at the Harrisburg Holiday Inn using Zoom. Several managers were present, with the rest remotely linked “live” for our Rookie Auction and Free Agent Draft.

Like Thomas Edison, TCBA

The image shows the number '58' in a large, glowing blue font, centered against a dark background. The number is illuminated from above by several bright stadium lights, creating a dramatic effect with lens flares and shadows. The lights are arranged in two groups, one on the left and one on the right, both pointing towards the center where the number is located. The overall scene is dark, with the primary light source being the stadium lights and the glow of the number itself.

58

In a 4-game stretch from July 20 to July 23, Edinburgh pitchers strike out 58 Athletics, but win only one of the 4 games. Only 21 times in MLB history has a MLB team struck out more often in any 4-game stretch (64 is the record, set by Milwaukee in 2017)

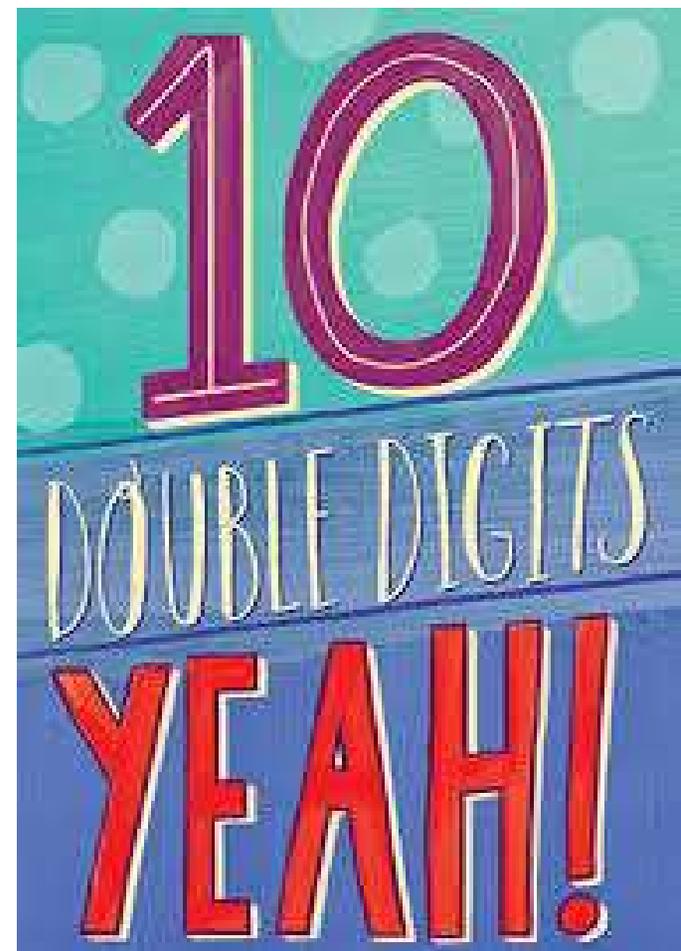

May 22 – Bethesda thumps Newark, 23-4 in our largest assault of the season.

August 13 – Farmington pounds Silver Spring, 21-8 in our other 21-gun salute.

First Round

QUARTER FINAL

Tom and I got together on Zoom to play our TCBA Today series, Eastport against Hilton Head in Round 1.

Game 1 - Tony Gonsolin vs. Martin Perez

The visitors jumped out to a quick start with a walk to Luis Urias and then a double by Adames put the Hedgies in the lead. Followed up shortly after in the 3rd inning when a MJ Melendez double brought in 2 of the 4 runs in the inning, staking a 5 run lead for Gonsolin, who would only allow 2 hits and 1 walk in 6 2/3 inning, and no runs. The only run for Eastport coming a Judge home run in the bottom of the 9th off Matt Bush to make the final score 9 -1 Hedgies
WP: Gonsolin (1-0) LP: Perez (0-1)

Game 2 - Tyler Anderson vs. Justin Verlander

Both starters came out hot, swapping zeroes for the first 5 innings, until the top of the 6th when Acuna gets an infield hit, gets moved over by Solak and then Luis Urias sends a dribbler in front of the plate, which Eastport catcher Austin Wynn throws past the third basemen scoring Acuna from 2nd.

This is followed in the top of the 7th with a Carlos Santana single knocking Verlander from the game, and Eastport brings in Ranger Suarez who promptly allows a hit to Nick Madrigal, a infield single to Stott to load the bases, and then Martin Maldonado somehow gets an infield single deep in the hole to score a run, Suarez walks Acuna for another run, and sac fly by Trout makes the score 4-0. Judge would add yet another solo home run, Ryan Helsley would shut the door for the save, and the final was 4-1 Hedgies.

WP: Anderson (1-0) LP: Verlander (0-1) S: Helsley (1)

Game 3 - Tristan McKenzie vs. Brandon Woodruff

The action moves to Hilton Head with the Hedgies bringing a 2-0 advantage home. The home team doesn't waste any time, as MJ Melendez opens the scoring in the bottom of the 2nd with a 2 run blast. Followed shortly by back to back home runs by Acuna & Trout in the 5th, to make the edge 4-0, at which point Judge hits his solo home run, to cut the lead to 4-1 again. Woodruff pitches 6 2/3 striking out 10, and allowing the 1 run to Judge. Tanner Houck came in itchy in relief but managed to get 4 uneventful outs, and bridged to Helsley again for the save. 4-1 Final, Hedgies take a 3 games to 0 edge.

WP: Woodruff(1-0) LP: McKenzie (0-1) S: Helsley

Game 4 - Martin Perez vs. Luis Castillo

Martin Perez pitching with his teams life on the line, hoping to improve from his first start, does just that, shutting out the home Hedgies for the first 8 innings. However, much to the chargin of the visitors Castillo matches him zero for zero, until the top of the 7th when Castillo gets into trouble, when Escobar gets a bloop hit over the shortstop, and Castillo gets pulled for the lefty Bummer to pitch to Guillorme, who works a walk, which was all the Hedgie manager needed to see, he went to the Mountain, Felix Bautista, facing Wynns with 2 on and no one out. Who bunts the two players over, so now with runners on 3rd and 2nd with no one out. A pinch runner Jon Berti enters at 3rd, with Trent Grisham at the plate. Bautista manages to get him to ground out back to him and gets the out at 1st while holding Berti at 3rd. Swanson then pops out to Hiura playing 1st base, to end the threat. It goes quickly to the top of the 9th, when Helsley comes on to set the Athletics down in order, bringing up the Hedgies in the bottom of the 9th with a chance to win the game and series. Martin Perez still on the mound, cruising so far. Luis Rengifo leads off with a double just past the outstretched Thompson. Jose Cisnero comes on in relief of Perez to face Melendez, who tries bunting twice, but fails both times. He swings away and manages to somehow move the runner to third by hitting it back to the pitcher. Pinch hitter Jake McCarthy comes on to try and win it, and he's intentionally walked to set up the double play, but then steals 2nd to take away the DP, only to have Hiura intentionally walked, loading the bases, with 1 out. Bryson Stott comes up with the game on the line pinch hitting for Martin Maldonado, he sends it to the wall and Rengifo scores from 3rd. The hedgie crowd goes nuts, as Stott sends them to the next round. 1-0

WP: Helsley (1-0) LP: Perez (0-2)

This was a series dominated by the Hedgie starters as they allowed 2 earned runs across 26 1/3 innings to the Athletics, while our offense did enough across the 4 games to get the job done.

Co-MVP - Ryan Helsley & Ronald Acuna

Thanks for a great & fun series Tom (Although guessing it was a bit more fun for me)**

Deja vu all over again for Eastport. Finish first in the regular season, exit quickly in the first round or the postseason.

Damn. This one was embarrassing. Not even a contest. No offense to speak of for Eastport except Aaron Judge solo homers when games were out of reach anyway. Errors, walks, dumb baserunning...the A's were truly awful and dominated in every facet of the game by a much better opponent.

Aaron has a very good pitching staff and will be a force to be reckoned with in Harrisburg. Congrats, Aaron!

FARMINGTON

RIVERRATS

ROUND

Executive Summary: Morgantown 35, Farmington 3.

Details

Game 1 – The Raiders jumped all over Max Fried scoring 6 runs in 3+ innings. Then an impressive FR bullpen took over, allowed 10 more runs, and it ended up 16-0 in favor of Morgantown. Taillon tossed a 3-hit shutout. Friedl went 5 for 5 with 2 homers while Harold Rameriz went 5 for 7. Randy Arozarena (2 days) was injured in the game.

Game 2 – Wacha extended the Rats scoreless streak to 18 innings with a 6-hit shutout. In the meantime the MR offense scored 10 times. Mookie had 2 homers while Alfaro and Castro had one each.

Game 3 – Betts belted a 2-run shot in the 1st and it looked like MR was off to the races again. FR's Sonny Gray slammed the door for the next 6 innings. In the FR half of the 7th Arraez knocked in Elvis Andrus and then scored on an error to tie the game at 2. The score stayed that way into the 10th. After Dylan Lee retired Farmington in order, Jason Adam came on with his 20XYZ rating. Josh Bell opened the inning with a single. The 8/9 hitters walked and “ here's the pitch from ADAM ... McNEIL swings hard and lifts a fly ball to right ... the runners tag ... SPRINGER backpedals ... still drifting back he might run out of room ... he times his leap ... gone! ... it's all over it sailed over the wall for a grand slammer! ... whoa, baby, that ball just kept on carrying SPRINGER hangs his head ... he just missed making a spectacular catch McNEIL will take a tour of the bases ... he loves a trip downtown ... ADAM hung one and McNEIL made him pay ... ADAM does some landscaping on the mound” River Rats 2, Raiders 6

Game 4 – Fried was back for the River Rats while Jordan Lyles started for Mo'town. The game was scoreless into the home-half of the 5th. MR rallied when Story opened the inning with a double & moved to 3rd when Bell singled. A Suarez fly ball scored a run and moved Bell to 2nd. Castro's single moved Bell to 3rd. Mendick pinch for Alfaro and singled in a run. A double by Rameriz scored a 3rd run. A 7th inning homer off the bat of O'Neil Cruz cut the lead to 3-1. FR put 2 runners on base in the 8th. Lee came in and struck out Springer. Then Bregman popped up to end the threat. Lee retired the side in order in the 9th and Morgantown had upset the #3 seed Farmington team in a sweep.

A hardy congratulations to Mike for putting together a powerhouse team. They deserved better in the playoffs. As they say, anybody can win a short series. This series was played on Zoom after we couldn't get Team Viewer to work.

All I can say is...it was a close series up until the first pitch being thrown.

Good luck to Gerry and all the remaining managers in the playoffs.

Mike

freeman

It was the Central Division winning Freeman of Waukesha against the Metro's 3rd place finisher Islanders in an opening round series. But despite their 3rd place finish, the Islanders' 104 wins was the 3rd highest total in the league. LI also led all teams during the regular season with 824 runs scored, but the Freeman were almost equally as dominating in the team pitching categories, with the 4th fewest runs (565) allowed. Throughout most of their franchise's history, the Islanders have typically boasted one of the league's most formidable bullpens, but this year it was the Freeman who had assembled one of, if not, the deepest bullpens ever seen in TCBA history. Perhaps not surprisingly, given the depth of their pen, Waukesha had recorded ZERO complete game shutouts during the regular season, and just a single complete game, but oh that bullpen! And there was even one statistical oddity that meant this would be a series of "Worst vs First": HIT BY PITCHES. Long Island batters had been drilled a league leading 118 times. Waukesha batters were hit a league low of just 26 times. All these numbers would come into play in a Zoom played series that would also make TCBA history.

GAME 1—Long Island's two regular catchers, Willson Contreras and Sean Murphy were both injured and ruled out of at least the opening two games of the series. Garrett Stubbs, who'd caught just parts of 21 games all season, was pressed into emergency duty. In the bottom of the 1st, Christian Yelich led off with a triple, and not wanting to allow things to get out of hand early, the LI defense played deep. Corey Seager fielded a sharp grounder by the next batter....and for some reason came home with it! A startled Stubbs took the throw as an apparently even more startled Yelich retreated toward 3rd. A brief run down ensued, and LI had seemingly made a miracle recovery from a potential 1st inning disaster.....until Yandy Diaz's 2-out double made it 1-0 Waukesha. And that's where it stayed through 4 innings....until Garrett Stubbs (remember him?) crushed a Julio Urias' offering for a 3-run HR. Three WA relievers and a pair of LI relievers tossed a combined 5+ innings of 1-hit shutout ball as LI took the opener 3-1.

GAME 2—Corbin Burnes faced off against LI's Nasty Nestor Cortez, and not surprisingly given Waukesha's quick hooks, made it through only 7 innings. What was, however, VERY surprising was that those were SEVEN NO-HIT innings that Burnes was tossing. Not that Cortez was bad, but two of the hits he'd allowed were solo HR's by Bo Bichette and Mitch Haniger. Enter Jhoan Duran for the Freeman....Isles go down 1-2-3. Top 9—still 2-0 Freeman; Duran retires the first batter and skipper Sajdak summons Devin Williams to face Max Muncy who flies to center—2 outs, one away from a no-hitter with Andres Gimenez, whose .325 batting average was second only to Morgantown's Jeff McNeil during the regular season.... “The pitch ... GIMENEZ turns the bat loose ... but comes up empty ... he's out of there! A combined no-hitter!” Guess we'll have to turn to our league historians....I think I can recall Meadowlands' Dave Dravecky once no-hitting the Isles in, I believe, a postseason game, but perhaps it was just a final series division contest? That's the trouble with managing well over 100 years of baseball...some memories can get foggy. (Just like when I'm out with the boys...“We got some good old stories that we love to tell...they may not be true, but we sure do remember them well!”) And just like that, the series was even at a game apiece. And oh, by the way, a combined 4.1 innings of hitless relief from the two teams' bullpens.

GAME 3—the scene shifts to Long Island where Aaron Nola squares off against Eric Lauer. Again Waukesha jumps to an early lead on a 2nd inning Dylan Carlson HR. But the Islanders answer back on a 3rd inning Joc Pederson HR and then on a 3-run blast by Mark Mathias who, ironically, is only on the roster because both Brandon Nimmo and Evan Longoria are on the IL for the series. Again, the bullpens slam the door with a combined 6 innings of 1-hit, scoreless relief. Long Island takes the series lead with the 4-1 win.

GAME 4—This one was ugly, VERY UGLY Long Island took a 2-0 first inning lead; WA responded with 3 in the 3rd; LI comes back with 2 in the 5th and then adds an insurance run in the 6th. The bullpens have been breached, though only with the help of some untimely errors. But it ain't over....Waukesha tallies a pair of 7th inning runs to tie the score at 5. And then the 8th inning! Did I mention something earlier in this report about hit batsmen? Today, seven Waukesha pitchers drilled FIVE Islander batters. Three WA pitchers were ejected....remarkably none of the Islander batters were forced from the game (WHEW!!!) And oh yes, that 8th inning—Long Island scores 3 runs off three WA relievers (two of whom are ejected). Remarkably the three WA relievers don't allow a hit, but still yield the winning runs on free passes, multiple HBP's, and one very untimely error. LI wins 8-5 and is one game from advancing.

GAME 5—In any other series, this might have been the most memorable of games; it wasn't, but still it was something of a classic. Logan Webb is back on the hill for LI and is brilliant. A 2nd inning Joc Pederson RBI single gives LI a 1-0 lead, but WA ties it in the 6th on a Yelich solo HR. Each team hits a batter, but no ugliness....In the 7th, David Peralta puts LI up 3-1 with a 2-run HR, and today the bullpen will not be the story. Webb goes the distance, scattering 7 hits as LI advances to next round in Harrisburg.

Thank you, Ken, on a great series, and a truly remarkable season. A postseason no-hitter!!! Surely a disappointing ending, but a memory to look back upon fondly. Many thanks to the half dozen or so GM's who dropped by for at least parts of the series....not as exciting as a conference room in Harrisburg, but Zoom is still pretty cool...and in that regard, a bit of a tip of the hat to Ken who you may not recall was really the original trailblazer in the arena of "live" on line gaming. Way back in the pre-COVID years---do you remember "Team Viewer"? I've already admitted that sometimes memories aren't as crystal clear as we all might like, but I do seem to recall that Ken was the first to introduce that platform to us. And here we are now. Thanks. Game scripts (all but the ugly one that we failed to save) and series file are all attached.

Mac

Great series and nice write up.

Like old-timey baseball . . . Pitcher's duels (except for the bean ball war game.

Freemen are happy with the season, but disappointed that our offense again let us down, but the Islanders are tough and we were excited to add a post season no hitter to the history.

Good luck, Mac!

Oh, and the Freeman may be looking to retool. So, before you draft, take a look and make an offer.

Ken

Bethesda

MD

Bambinos

Three times in the last dozen years, Bethesda and Gunpowder made the playoffs and then squared off in the 1st round to see who would be playing in the semi-finals in Harrisburg. In each of the last two matchups, the Bethesda manager travelled to Gunpowder to play the series. In both of those cases, they drove home victorious. This time around, the Gunpowder GM insisted on making the drive south in Maryland in an attempt to reverse the curse. In the first encounter between the two teams, Bethesda had to claw back from a 3-1 deficit to take the series. Last year Bethesda won in six, but lost Kevin Gausman to injury the dramatically lowered their chances of getting past the semi-final round. This year's battle occurred earlier today.....

Every once in a while, the losing manager does the write up of the playoff results in an attempt to fool league members into thinking they won the series. Could this be one of those?

Game ONE – This game is dedicated to Josh Lowe of the Hamilton Eh's..... What?

Bethesda's Alek Manoah no-hits Gunpowder through the 1st 5 innings as the Bambinos scores single runs in the 2nd, 3rd and 4th innings. They have a huge hit advantage but this is still just a 3-0 ball game. Rafael Devers drives in a run in the sixth as the no-hit possibility evaporates and the score is 3-1 going into the last third of the game. The Ironmen put a runner on base in the 7th, but can't score. Then they put a runner on in the 8th.... Nothing. With two outs in the 9th Christian Vazquez rips a double to bring up the tying run in the form of Ben Gamel, but he leaves his bat on his shoulder for a called strike three. Bethesda takes the opener in a close score of 3-1 despite out hitting the Ironmen 11-3

So what does Josh Lowe have to do with anything, you say? Just the feeling of stupidity of the Bethesda's GM. Josh was a FA target for Bethesda last year and after filling key holes in his playoff roster, Josh Lowe was still available in the 5th round of the FA draft as their pick came up. But so was Sean Bouchard. Bouchard had such a great card and would be very valuable. He had a ridiculously high OBP to leverage in what looked like a sure-fire playoff season. Greed is good? Greed is right? Not so sure right now. In the 8th inning of this game, after reaching base 2 of his 3 AB's - BOUCHARD GOT DRILLED IN THE HEAD. Out for 40 games. Might as well be 40 lifetimes. We gave up Josh Lowe for 4 PA's in one game of the playoffs. Fire that moron GM. You are very welcome, Ed!

Game TWO –

Gunpowder's Luis Severino lasted a third of an inning. No arm troubles, just got smacked all over the field in a 7 run Bethesda 1st inning. No much to say about this one as the final score end up 11-2 with a 17-3 hit advantage. Bethesda leads the series 2-0, but Gunpowder has out homered us 1-0 so far.

Game THREE –

A close game broke out where both had the same number of hits. Carlos Correa was the difference early hitting two solo HR's to give the home team a 2-1 lead through 5 innings. Once the Bethesda bullpen takes over Gunpowder is helpless and goes 0-10 down the stretch. Jose Siri steals a couple of bags in the 8th to give the Bambinos a 3-1 game win and a healthy 3-0 series lead.

GAME FOUR -

Kyle Schwarber hits a 2-rin HR in the 1st inning and for the 1st time all series THE IRONMEN LEAD! And then Bethesda goes nuts and the score is 9-2 after 4 innings. Then the Bambino manager gets cute taking guys out so they don't get hurt and getting all his pitchers into the game so they aren't itchy for the next series and other such nonsense. And low and behold the lead shrinks to 9-6 in the ninth and Gunpowder has the tying run at the plate with just one out. Daniel Bard strikes out Gamel for the second out and then DJ LeMahieu pops out to the SS.

So, we now have our second sweep in the 1st round of the playoffs. Bethesda will host Hilton Head in round two. One would think both teams will be nicely rested for the next series, but in fact that won't be the case if the remaining series are also sweepish. Bethesda is now down two outfielders for the rest of the playoffs as they lost Kris Bryant during the regular season. In what was suppose to be a position of depth when we added Bouchard, is now thinner than thawing lake ice come spring.

My congratulations to Walt on winning another division championship. If we ever meet again in the 1st round of the playoffs again – maybe we should zoom it.

Frank

Subject: Re: Series Results Bethesda @ Gunpowder

Frank is being polite. It was not as close as it may seem from his write up. At no time was Bethesda in danger of losing a game, much less the series. Except for the Bouchard injury he was able to get everybody ready for Hilton Head.

Best part of the visit was meeting Frank's dogs. THEY were nice to me. 😊

Good luck Frank!

The last six years saw each of the six Metro teams win a World Series.

The Metro “gang” extended their streak to seven seasons as Long Island prevailed over Bethesda in five games.

It is the seventh Today title for the Islanders, and their 16th overall in TCBA history.
